

Fall 2009 INSTRUCTIONAL SKILLS
WORKSHOP (ISW) - 2 credits

JCC Undergraduate and SAU Graduate credit available

CO-FACILITATED BY

Dr. James J. Scott and Dr. Mary C. Belknap
at Jackson Community College

Registered students will receive a letter with room instructions prior to the first meeting.

EDU 290

Instructional Skills
Workshop

ISW

Fall 2009 course meets the following dates:

August 20, Thursday 8:30 am — 4:30 pm

September 11, Friday 8:30 am — 4:30 pm

October 9, Friday 8:30 am — 4:30 pm

October 30, Friday 8:30 am — 4:30 pm

TEACHERS, FUTURE
TEACHERS, and PRESENTERS

The Instructional Skills Workshop
brings together -

- best practices in education
- fosters personal growth and reflection about the teaching/learning process
- highly focused practice and personal teaching application
- participants with a proven, safe, structured environment to look at their teaching skills and receive feedback

EDUCATION OUTCOME/OBJECTIVES OF COURSE ARE:

- Demonstrate 3 sample teaching lessons in areas of preference
- Give peer feedback both written and oral on 12-18 lessons
- Demonstrate a practical understanding for participatory learning skills, specifically related to Multiple Intelligence Theory
- Complete related assessments
- Work in groups and experience cooperative learning dynamics
- Motivate students to assume a greater sense of responsibility in the learning process
- Improve personal knowledge of the teaching and learning process

Students should come with an openness to share, a desire to receive feedback on their teaching skills, and a commitment to be present 100% of the workshop.

For further information or sign up contact:

Mary Belknap 517.796.8575

BelknapMaryC@jccmi.edu

Jim Scott 517.796.8488

ScottJamesJ@jccmi.edu

Course fees will cover meals, text, and 2 undergrad credits (arrangements for graduate credit made during first class)