Corporate & Continuing Education

Corporate and Continuing Education Serves

CCE collaborates with economic and workforce development partners to better serve employers in the South Central Michigan region. In response to ever-changing workforce needs, CCE offers a variety of services to employers, including:

- Facilitating the Michigan New Jobs Training Program to provide no-cost training opportunities for eligible employers. Currently, CCE manages more than $2 million in agreements.
- Identifying training needs and developing company-specific solutions, such as assisting with the design of an employer-sponsored apprenticeship program with customized Related Technical Instruction, approved by the U.S. Department of Labor.
- Providing and/or developing customized workforce assessments to determine the training pathway most appropriate per employee.
- Assisting employers with customizing training, including developing curriculum and training the trainer on deployment strategies.
- Providing occupational community training, including real estate, truck driving, fitness trainer, medical pre-certification, human resources, and teacher continuing education courses.
- Working with workforce partners to identify additional resources, such as funding opportunities or U.S. Department of Labor connections.
- Assisting with recruitment strategies for area employers, including building connections with Spring Arbor University, Baker College, and Jackson College Career Services.
