

Sara A. Perkin

Sara joined JC in April 2013 and is serving as the Chief of Staff. She also serves as the current Assistant Secretary to the Jackson College Board of Trustees.

Prior to joining Jackson College, Sara spent over nine years at Siena Heights University and served five of her most recent years as Director of Admissions. Before taking on the position as Director, Sara worked as the Coordinator of Transfer Student Services. Prior to beginning her time at Siena Heights, she worked for Lourdes University as the Assistant Registrar.

Sara is a proud alumna of Jackson Community College where she received her Associate of Arts in 2000. She holds her BA in Business Administration from Siena Heights University and her MBA with a concentration in Leadership from the University of Findlay.

Sara is most proud of her role as mother to Makenna and Mason.
