Policy Summary:

The purpose of this policy is to ensure and verify that information provided through the college’s website is accessible to students, prospective students, employees, guests, and visitors with disabilities, particularly those with visual, hearing or manual impairments or who otherwise require the use of assistive technology to access information.

Scope: All employees, students, board members and guests of Jackson College.

Policy Statement:

With regard to the Jackson College website and any official Jackson College web presence which is developed by, maintained by, or offered through third party vendors and open sources, Jackson College is committed to compliance with the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Section 504 and Title II so that students, parents and members of the public with disabilities are able to independently acquire the same information, engage in the same interactions, and enjoy the same benefits and services within the same timeframe as those without disabilities, with substantially equivalent ease of use; and that they are not excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise subjected to discrimination in any Jackson College program, service, and activity delivered online.

All existing web content produced by Jackson College and new, updated and existing web content provided by third-party developers, will conform to Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.0, Level AA conformance, or updated equivalents. This regulation applies to all new, updated, and existing web pages, as well as all web content produced by third-party developers.

Definitions:

- Accessible: A person with a disability is afforded the opportunity to acquire the same information, engage in the same interactions and enjoy the same services as a person without a disability in an equally effective and equally integrated manner, with substantially equivalent ease of use. A person with a disability must be able to obtain the information as fully, equally and independently as a person without a disability. Although this might not result in identical ease of use compared to that of persons without disabilities, it still must ensure equal opportunity to the educational benefits and opportunities afforded by the technology and equal treatment in the use of such technology.
- Disability: A physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.
- Online Content: Any information or service that may be accessed via a web browser, including—but not limited to—internet websites, images, audio, video, search engines and locally or remotely hosted (e.g., “cloud”) software systems.
- Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG): A set of web accessibility guidelines published by the W3C. As of the drafting of this Policy, the most current version of these guidelines is WCAG 2.0. These guidelines may change as technology advances.
- World Wide Web Consortium (W3C): The main international standards organization for the web
