

Candyce McArthur

Class of 2009

- Graduated from Jackson College with her Associate of Science degree in 2009.
- Continued her studies at Central Michigan University, completing her bachelor's degree in finance.
- In 2015, she completed an MBA in Organizational Leadership from Spring Arbor University, graduating with honors.
- Serves as the People and Culture Partner for North America at Dawn Foods Global, where she brings her expertise in employee engagement, belonging, and organizational development to support strategic initiatives.
- Earned a Certified Human Resource Specialist Certificate from Michigan State University
- Completed the Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Jackson Program.
- Earned LinkedIn Learning certifications in High-Stakes Communication, Well-Being in the Workplace, and Employee Wellness.
- Community service is deeply important to her, having been inspired by her mother's work with the Hot Air Jubilee board.
- She actively contributes to the community through her involvement with the Leadership Jackson Alumni Network and service on the Michigan Motor Sports Hall of Fame Board of Directors.
- Resides in the Jackson area with her husband, Brad Lamberson and their fur baby, GSXR.