

Carly Lee

Class of 2017

- Carly Lee graduated from Jackson College in August 2017 with an Associate in Applied Science degree in graphic design.
- Carly attended Lumen Christi Catholic High School where she graduated cum laude.
- During her junior and senior years of high school, Carly was dual enrolled at Jackson College where she finished the equivalent of her freshman year of college.
- After high school, Carly full time at Jackson College and became a member of Phi Theta Kappa.
- While working toward her associate degree, Carly began attending college at Siena Heights University.
- In May 2017, Carly graduated summa cum laude from Siena Heights University with a bachelor's degree in professional communications.
- During the summer of 2017, Carly interned in the Jackson College marketing department where she fulfilled her requirements toward a graphic design degree.
- Carly is now employed full time in the marketing department of Commonwealth Associates, Inc., where she works on proposals for clients and uses her graphic design skills to create advertisements and newsletters.
- Carly is currently a member of the Jackson College Alumni Advisory Council and continues to use her graphic design skills learned to provide advertisements for many local businesses in the Jackson area.
- In her free time, Carly enjoys spending time with her husband, Skylar, and their adorable Shih-Tzu, Sophie. Carly and Skylar are preparing to build their dream home in 2019!

Mantra

“Put your heart, mind, and soul into even your smallest acts. This is the secret of success. “ – Swami Sivananda