

Courtney McIntosh

Class of 2011

- Courtney C. McIntosh is a Nursing Administrator at Henry Ford Allegiance Health, a 475-bed health system that has more than 400 physicians and 3,700 staff members.
- After completing her Certification as a Nursing Assistant from the Jackson Area Career Center, she worked as a CNA for HFAH and Chelsea Hospital.
- She graduated from Jackson College with her Associate Applied Science in Nursing. She earned her Bachelor of Science Nursing from Siena Heights University, and Master of Business Administration & Master of Science Nursing from Spring Arbor University, graduating Magna Cum Laude in both disciplines. She continued with her life-long learning by obtaining a certification as a Certified Emergency Nurse (CEN). She is actively pursuing a Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) degree from Spring Arbor University.
- In 2015, she began her career in nursing leadership as a supervisor in the Emergency Department, a Clinical Nurse Manager/Director of Nursing for Inpatient Behavioral Health in 2018, and currently serves as Nursing Administrator for the Behavioral Health Service Line, encompassing Inpatient (adult/geriatric), Outpatient Behavioral Health, Outpatient Therapists, Partial Hospital Day Program, Substance Use Disorders, Access Center (walk-in/ED), Neuropsychology, and Consult Liaison team.
- Honored with the Dave McCormick Memorial Award-Allegiance Health and Sister Sharon McGuire Academic Excellence Award- Siena Heights University. She is a member of the Emergency Nurses Association.
- Courtney is married to her husband, Darin and has two young children—Holland and Barrett.

