Catalog Description and Pre- and Co-requisites (Same as taxonomy and catalog)

English 261 Students experiment with writing poetry, fiction, drama, and creative nonfiction for discussion and criticism. Students invent, collaborate and revise before submitting a portfolio of their work. Contemporary readings and visiting authors/videos enhance the class, but primary attention is given to students’ creative writing process.

Pre-requisites: ENG 085 and ENG 131

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities Students Acquire from this Course (Educational Objectives)

Students should be able to work through their particular writing process, while understanding variations in the way writers approach their discipline. They should be able to respond to others’ work in small group discussions, in writing, and in discussions that involve the entire class. Students should recognize genres such as fiction, poetry, drama, and creative non-fiction, and techniques that compose and can used to strengthen writing. They should understand the crucial nature that writing groups and communities play in enabling (or silencing) creative work.

Associate Degree Outcomes Addressed in this Course (These must appear in course syllabus.)
