GEO 5 (Contextual Competence): Understand human behavior and social systems and the principles which govern them.

Outcome	The Student	Assignment/ Measures	Success Criteria	Student Outcomes	Revisions/ Improvements
Foundational Principles and Systems Thinking	● Identifies key factors that determine and influence human behavior as it relates to the field, including both personal factors and broader social systems. ● Utilizes discipline-appropriate terminology to articulate essential principles, theories, and perspectives of human behavior within the field.			____ of ____ students met the success criteria.
Critical Thinking and Analysis	● Articulates methods of analysis and interpretation used within the field to understand human behavior, while also identifying the critical assumptions and limitations of each method.			____ of ____ students met the success criteria.
Application	● Applies knowledge of human behavior and social systems to discipline-related problems, case studies, or historical examples. ● Identifies multiple social systems designed to regulate human behavior within the field and the limitations of each. ● Recognizes areas social systems can be improved within the field to increase human flourishing.			____ of ____ students met the success criteria.	