

GEO 5 (Core Competence): Understand human behavior and social systems and the principles which govern them.

Outcome	The Student	Assignment/ Measures	Success Criteria	Student Outcomes	Revisions/ Improvements
Foundational Principles and Systems Thinking	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identifies key factors that determine and influence human behavior. Recognizes the existence and dynamic interaction of both personal factors and social systems. Utilizes discipline-appropriate terminology to articulate essential principles, theories, and perspectives within the field. 			____ of ____ students met the success criteria.
Critical Thinking and Analysis	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Articulates methods of analysis and interpretation used by behavioral sciences. Identifies the critical assumptions and limitations of any given behavioral science research method. 			____ of ____ students met the success criteria.
Application	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Applies knowledge of human behavior and social systems to various contexts, case studies, or historical examples. Identifies at least two social systems designed to regulate human behavior and the limitations of each. Recognizes areas social systems can be improved to increase human flourishing. 			____ of ____ students met the success criteria.	